Paul Buttery and Lorie Lucas of Lambton Public Health presented their report on the Built-Up Environment in the County of Lambton.

LPH is in year three of a 5 year strategic plan that tries to collaborate with relevant sectors to ensure a healthy built environment by establishing public health perspectives and representation in the planning processes of municipalities, community groups, developers, school boards and other sectors and by responding to the concerns about the health impacts of our built environment.

The Built-Up Environment is defined as part of our physical surroundings and includes the buildings, parks, schools, road systems, and other infrastructure that we encounter in our daily lives each day.

Built-Up Environment can impact our physical health, mental health, safety, sense of community belonging and the economic health of our community.

LPH is asking local municipalities to utilize their self-assessment tool to determine the level of built-up environment in their communities.

Moved by S. Arnold     Seconded by D. Randell

1. DECLARATION OF PECUNIARY INTEREST:

Chairperson Gilliland declared the meeting open and asked members to declare pecuniary interest at the appropriate time.

4:00 p.m. – CH2M Geoff Kooymans – Odour Control Project at the CWWTP

Geoff Kooymans and Warren Saint of CH2M Consultants presented an update on the continuing odour concerns at the Courtright Waste Water Treatment Plant.

Air recovery tests undertaken in a “worst case scenario” setting this past August have identified the two biggest offenders for odour release as the inlet and the storage tank. These two areas have demonstrated releases of Hydrogen Sulfide, which carries an offensive odour. Further, the oxygen being emitted from the turbo blower is excessive and is not in compliance with the current ECA.

CH2M is proposing a phased approach to help mitigate and attempt to eliminate the odour causing components of the plant and reduce all noise emissions. The advantages of the phased approach being that it targets the most offensive components first, it allows for re-examination after each phase and it limits initial capital expenditures.

The very approximate capital cost associated with the planned Phase One of the project is over $1 million. This phase will see the development of a biofilter which is proposed to be installed north of the aeration basins on-site. Air from processing areas of the plant will be recovered and ducted to the filter where it will be naturally treated prior to being released into the atmosphere. Once this phase is completed and incorporated into the operation of the plant, another assessment will be done as to whether or not proceeding with subsequent steps will produce measurable improvements beyond those produced by phase one.

Chairperson Gilliland thanked Geoff and Warren for the presentation and encouraged them to continue to investigate solutions to the odour issues at the plant.
