Sombra Museum Blueberry Social offers sweet treats, sweet music and fun

Inside the Sombra Museum Cultural Centre, visitors enjoyed their choice of a variety of sweet blueberry treats. But that was just one of the things that made the day so special. Left: The sweet voice of Bettina Mercer Hart filled the air from her outdoor stage at the annual Sombra Museum Blueberry Social. The classically trained singer, who has retired from her 28 year singing career, now teaches voice and piano. Top right: The wooden boat puzzles were a hit with the Rooney kids, Will, 3, and Alex, 6, although their mom, Amy and grandpa, Tom also seemed to enjoy building an assortment of long lakers.

MP Marilyn Gladu receives historical memento

MP Marilyn Gladu received a memento of St. Clair Township's past from Heritage St. Clair during her visit to the Moore Museum on Aug. 16. The poster is a copy of one of the interpretive displays that visitors can see when they tour the new St. George's Sesqui-centennial Park at the St. Clair Civic Centre on Emily Street in Mooretown. MP Gladu was at the museum to present Heritage St. Clair with the Canada 150 Sesqui-centennial Award in recognition of their dedication to the preservation of the township's heritage.
