A Women in Politics Initiative

Who We Are

The Jean Collective is committed to non-discrimination on the basis of ethnicity, language, race, age, ability, sex, sexual orientation, income, political or religious affiliation in all aspects and at all levels of the Collective. We define women to include LGBTQ2SIA+, and the LGBTQ community. We are committed to ensuring that our mission and operations embrace the diversity of all. We make every effort to see that our structure, policies, and systems promote equal access to all.

Vision: We inspire and educate female leaders to learn, champion change, and support other women in politics.

Our Values & Principles

Representation
Collaboration
Equity
Respect
Inclusivity
Empowerment
Transparency

Objectives

- To encourage, educate, and prepare women for politics.
- To create parity in politics with a focus on municipal government within Lambton County
- To create a better informed and educated electorate.

Connect and Inspire: An Ongoing Conversation Series - Watch past videos of our panels on Our YouTube Channel

Join The Jean Collective as we host experienced women and men who are passionate about women serving in government. Learn from their experiences by listening to their stories and having your questions answered directly from those who had lived the political life. Let their experience inspire you!

Scheduled to date are:

Deb Mathews - Deb served as the 10th Deputy Premier of Ontario and was a Liberal member of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario from 2003 to 2018, representing the riding of London North Centre. Matthews served as a cabinet minister in the governments of Dalton McGuinty and Kathleen Wynne.

Pat Davidson – Pat served as a member of the House of Commons of Canada from 2006 until 2015 representing the Conservative Party of Canada in the riding of Sarnia—Lambton. Pat previously served as mayor of Wyoming 1991–2000 and Plympton-Wyoming, Ontario 2001–2006 and as Warden of Lambton County.

Eleni Bakopanos – The Honorable Eleni Bakopanos served as a Member of the House of Commons of Canada from 1993 to 2006. Her roles included Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada 1997–1999. She was also Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister of Social Development with emphasis on Social Economy and Chair of the Standing Committee on Citizenship and Immigration and Vice-Chair of the Standing Committee on Canadian Heritage. Eleni encourages all women to become involved in the political process. Currently she is the chair of Equal Voice, a national non-profit organization that promotes the election of more women to all levels of Canadian politics.

Run-Win-Lead

A virtual workshop series developed by women, for women. The workshops will provide participants with the foundational skills to claim their place in politics and thus effect change. Sessions 2 through 9 - $10 each. Register on Eventbrite.

Session 1 January 20, 2021

Understanding Municipal Government & How It Works

Facilitated by Brian White, Sarnia City Councillor, and Lambton County Councillor & Jackie Rombouts, Mayor, Twp. of Warwick, and Lambton County Councillor.

Before anyone can decide on whether to run for office, it is important they understand what they are getting themselves into. In this session, participants will understand how to become active participants in municipal government, and what is involved once elected. <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/session-1-understanding-municipal-government-how-it-works-tickets-130628807279>

Session 2 February 17, 2021

So, You Are Thinking of Running for Office, What Now?

Facilitated by Helen Lomax, Owner, Pathways & Transitions

Elected officials often face scrutiny and must be able to work well under pressure. In this session, participants will learn more about their own strengths and weaknesses, and how to utilize those strengths and improve their weaknesses. <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/session-2-so-you-are-thinking-of-running-for-office-what-now-tickets-134267474631?ref=estw>

Session 3 March 24, 2021

What is Your Why? How to Identify Your Purpose, Cause, and Platform and Build Your Support System.

Facilitated by Marika Sylvain Groendyk, Owner, Bluepoint Public Relations

When campaigning, it is important to have a strong foundation that aligns with a candidate's goals should they be elected. This session will assist each participant in identifying their purpose and reason for becoming involved in politics, and how to relay this into a platform. Participants will also learn how to build a support system to help get them through the triumphs and challenges candidates experience during a run for office. <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/session-3-what-is-your-why-how-to-identify-your-purpose-cause-platform-tickets-134267940023>

Session 4 April 21, 2021

Know Your Story

Facilitated by Brian Maxfield, President, Online & Digital Education Academy

Candidates need an “elevator speech” to help them develop the story that will inspire others to support them, work for them, and vote for them. In this session, participants will explore the reasons behind their decision to get involved in politics and develop and learn how to communicate their story with others.

Session 5 May 19, 2021

Why Not You? Overcoming Barriers in Municipal Government and Becoming a Self-Advocate

Facilitated by Carol-Lynn Chambers, Professor, Western University

Women in politics face unique challenges and it is important that they are adequately prepared to advocate for themselves and constituents to reduce systemic barriers. It is also essential that women who serve in politics understand how to successfully navigate a male-dominated space where they may experience intimidation and harassment. In this session, participants will learn how to self-advocate and speak up for themselves and others by making sure that people know their needs and interests.
