Lambton County Archives to Host James Gordon Concert
Friday, November 9, 2018

Wyoming, ON - Lambton County Archives will be hosting solo singer-songwriter James Gordon for a concert at the Sarnia Library Theatre later this month.

The concert will be held at 7:30 p.m., Friday, November 23.

Tickets for the event are $25 and can be ordered through the EventBrite link on the Lambton County Archives' Facebook page. Like the Lambton County Archives on Facebook to receive a $5 coupon code for the event.

In his 40 year career as a solo singer-songwriter and with the ground-breaking trio Tamarack, Gordon has released 40 albums and toured relentlessly around the world. He has penned over 1,500 songs including Frobisher Bay, Mining for Gold, and Looking for Livingstone. In addition to compositions for symphony orchestras, musical theatre, dance, and film scores, Gordon was heard on CBC radio for over 10 years as songwriter-in-residence for the Basic Black and Ontario Morning programs.

Lambton County Archives is the archival centre for genealogical and local history research in Lambton County. Owned and operated by the County of Lambton, Lambton County Archives preserves and protects the documents that tell the stories of the people and places of our community and makes those records accessible for researchers.
